

Key:

B.8._	Actual WI History Standard
(How and why...	Ms. Fuller’s explanation tells you what you should know and be able to do and explain.

B.8.1 Interpret the past using a variety of sources, such as biographies, diaries, journals, artifacts, eyewitness interviews, and other primary source materials, and evaluate the credibility of sources used

(How did you use and compare multiple sources?)

B.8.2 Employ cause-and-effect arguments to demonstrate how significant events have influenced the past and the present in United States and world history

(How does what happened in the past affect us today?)

B.8.3 Describe the relationships between and among significant events, such as the causes and consequences of wars in United States and world history

(How does what happened in the past affect us today?)

B.8.4 Explain how and why events may be interpreted differently depending upon the perspectives of participants, witnesses, reporters, and historians

(How and why do people have different perspectives?)

B.8.7 Identify significant events and people in the major eras of United States and world history

(Which people, groups, and events influenced history?)

B.8.8 Identify major scientific discoveries and technological innovations and describe their social and economic effects on society

(What impact did their inventions or discoveries have?)

B.8.10 Analyze examples of conflict, cooperation, and interdependence among groups, societies, or nations

(What was the effect of their relationships with other groups?)

B.8.11 Summarize major issues associated with the history, culture, tribal sovereignty, and current status of the American Indian tribes and bands in Wisconsin

(How were the tribes by region alike and different?)

B.8.12 Describe how history can be organized and analyzed using various criteria to group people and events chronologically, geographically, thematically, topically, and by issues

(Where do Native Americans fit into the BIG picture of our history?)